Chief, FBIS

"Facts and Figures"

1. Reference is made to your memorandum dated 7 December 1948, subject: Security of Publication "Facts and Figures". The Services Branch of CIA has been cautioned to avoid future security violations in connection with the preparation of "Facts and Figures" for mailing.

2. It is considered desirable for all FBIS field bureaus to receive "Facts and Figures", and that dissemination be made to all personnel authorized to receive information classified above RESTRICTED. Giving dissemination to this publication to all authorized personnel should stimulate their interest in providing Washington with more of this type of information. "Facts and Figures", having been disseminated to all authorized personnel on your staff, may be either retained or destroyed.
